

SUMMER READING
for students entering
GRADE 7

Among the Impostors by Margaret Peterson Haddix

The sequel to Among the Hidden follows Luke Garner as he assumes another boy's identity and attends a school for boys. Luke is now out of hiding and in danger in the outside world.

Belle Prater's Boy by Ruth White

When Belle Prater disappears, her son Woodrow comes to live in Coal Station, Virginia - next door to his cousin Gypsy. The two cousins become best friends and together they are able to face tragedy together.

Ella Enchanted by Gail Carson Levine ***

Spunky, stubborn and very clever, this new Cinderella spends a lifetime trying to outwit the curse of a fairy's unwelcome gift of obedience.

On My Honor by Marion Bauer

Joel's best friend Tony vanishes during a swimming contest in the hazardous Vermillion River where he promised his parents he would never go.

Steal Away Home by Lois Ruby

Dana Shannon starts to strip away wallpaper in her family's old house when she finds a skeleton in a small, secret room. How did the skeleton get there and why was the tiny room sealed up?

The Trouble with Lemons by Daniel Hayes

Two eighth-grade misfits, Tyler and Lymie, discover a dead body in a quarry and work to solve the mystery behind it.

Where the Red Fern Grows by Wilson Rawls ***

Billy makes his dogs the finest hunting team in the valley.

 indicates challenging reading